

Listening to Each Other

Reflect on your team's listening and discerning activities. How was God present in your listening, learning, and planning?

Share a story from the past year about how a person in your congregation engaged the idea of calling.

Were they excited? Confused? Surprised? Frustrated?

How did your team decide on the focus for your project?
Who did you listen to? What did you learn?

Listening to Each Other

Reflect on your team's listening and discerning activities. How was God present in your listening, learning, and planning?

Share a story from the past year about how a person in your congregation engaged the idea of calling.

Were they excited? Confused? Surprised? Frustrated?

How did your team decide on the focus for your project?
Who did you listen to? What did you learn?

Listening to Each Other

Reflect on your team's listening and discerning activities. How was God present in your listening, learning, and planning?

Share a story from the past year about how a person in your congregation engaged the idea of calling.

Were they excited? Confused? Surprised? Frustrated?

How did your team decide on the focus for your project?
Who did you listen to? What did you learn?

Listening to Each Other

Reflect on your team's listening and discerning activities. How was God present in your listening, learning, and planning?

Share a story from the past year about how a person in your congregation engaged the idea of calling.

Were they excited? Confused? Surprised? Frustrated?

How did your team decide on the focus for your project?
Who did you listen to? What did you learn?