

Listening to Each Other

What is one insight or question you are taking away from our time together?

What new possibilities do you now see?

What are you most excited about as you launch your project?

Listening to Each Other

What is one insight or question you are taking away from our time together?

What new possibilities do you now see?

What are you most excited about as you launch your project?

Listening to Each Other

What is one insight or question you are taking away from our time together?

What new possibilities do you now see?

What are you most excited about as you launch your project?

Listening to Each Other

What is one insight or question you are taking away from our time together?

What new possibilities do you now see?

What are you most excited about as you launch your project?